Books of the Bible Series: II Kings

Objective of Lesson

The objective of this lesson and every lesson in this series is for our children to become familiar with the structure and order of the books of the Bible and point out how each book is written to specifically picture who we are and who the person of Jesus Christ is and what He did to save sinners.

Scripture Reference

Book of 2 Kings

Lesson Instructions

1. Up to this point we have covered a lot of books of the Bible. Can you name the books we have covered so far? Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy, Joshua, Judges, Ruth, 1 & 2 Samuel and 1 Kings. WOW! We have covered a lot. I hope by this time you are getting a good overall picture of what the Bible is about, and also that you are better able to find the scriptures you hear your Pastor or parents quote and tell you about.
2. The next book we are going to get an overview of is 2nd Kings. I want you to turn to the book of 2nd Kings with me and point to the first verse. I got to studying this book and a few things jumped out at me that I wanted to point out to you. There are a bunch of stories in this book of 2nd Kings. There are so many that I realized there would be no way for me to tell you all of them. At a later date we are going to go over these stories in more detail, but today I am going to tell you the general theme of these stories.

3. How many of you have seen a "Jack-in-the-box"? (or the "Snakes-in-the-nut-can prank" - If you have one or the other hold it up at this time.). This is going to demonstrate the first theme I find in this book of Kings. As you have learned from previous books, God has a chosen people. What was the name of that people again? Israel. Yes, they were the chosen people of God. We have talked about sin. We have talked about how God gave us the Ten Commandments, so we would know what sin is; but have you ever truly experienced and felt what's in your sinful heart? That is where sinful acts come from, you know. They come from inside. They come from your corrupt and sinful heart. Let me give you a demonstration. This is a Jack-in-the-box. We are going to pretend that this clown is our heart. Lets put this heart inside this box. Shove it down in there, hold it down, and now close the lid. What is holding down this clown and keeping it from popping out all over the place? The sides and the top of box is keeping it down, right? You and I both know that if you took just ONE of these constraints away, or if you took just one side away, or took away just one "hedge" - it would POP out all over the place!!! (Make the phhhhhfffff sound with your tongue as a sound effect). This box does not change the fact that that clown (heart) wants to pop out of there, does it? Just like this clown or snake in the can - the constraints on it does not change its nature. As soon as the constraints are gone, PHHHfffff!!!! It is ALL over the place, doing what it wants to do!
4. This is what our heart is. If you knew you could walk out your door in the morning and do ANYTHING you wanted to do that day - nothing to stop you, no rules to follow, nobody to tell on you, nobody to get mad at you; you are free to make your own decisions, and do what you think is good and right in your own eyes to do, free to do your heart's desire, do you know what would happen? (Pop the snake or clown out of the box) You would do every wild and wicked thing your heart desired.

5. That is EXACTLY what happened in 2nd Kings. The people of God were left to themselves to do as they wanted and they went PHHHFFFF!!! - All over the place. They started worshiping stumps. They started sacrificing their own children to statues they made out of wood and metal. When a famine came upon the land some of them ate the heads of donkeys and bird poop. Some say they ate their own children and then complained when the rest of the children would be hidden from them, so they could not eat them. Oh, the depravity of our hearts! Oh, the awful things we will do if ONE constraint is taken away! The horrible things we will do, and what is worse, we think that they are the right thing to do! By nature we are born twisted up and full of horrible thoughts. If God takes his hand off of us, we will fall into such horrible darkness that we can't even see we are in the dark. We are completely dead and blind! (Take your hands and place them over your eyes).
6. Do you know what other theme I see in this book? I see the forgiveness and mercy of God. In EVERY story, God gently turned them from their wicked and disgusting ways, and He brought all of His chosen people to see their sinfulness. How? He did this by showing them His forgiveness, mercy, and goodness. Do you know what mercy is? Mercy is NOT giving us what we rightly deserve. Let's say you had a friend that constantly rebelled against you, a person that spit on you, told you they did not need you or want you, what would you do? You would leave them and walk away, right? That is what we do to God in our hearts every single moment of the day. We deserve to be left to ourselves. We deserve to die in our sins. BUT OH Praise God, He is a God of forgiveness and mercy!
7. Here is another demonstration... I am going to hold up a black piece of paper in the shape of a rectangle, and in front of it I am going to hold up another black piece of paper in the shape of a square. How well can you see the black square on this black rectangle? You can see it but it is not very obvious to you, right? Kind of hard to see? Well, what if I take that same black backdrop and hold up a white square in front of it? AH HA!!! You can see THAT much more clearly, right? That is exactly the way our sin looks against God's goodness. Our sin is black and our Lord's forgiveness and mercy and goodness is so beautiful and white and holy - especially to someone who doesn't deserve to be forgiven. Our Lord Jesus Christ's glory and goodness and perfection really shows the true shape we are in, doesn't it?

8. All these horrible things these people were doing, all these things they had decided were a good idea all seemed reasonable to them. However, when the Lord showed them HIS mercy and goodness, all of a sudden they could see how black and blind and horrible their hearts were. OH, what a horrible state we are in! All throughout this book the Lord God allows His people to do all their hearts desire. Did these people die in their imagined crazy ideas? No, God always sent them a preacher, a prophet taught of God, people like your pastor, to teach them the truth and show them the error of their ways - someone to point out to them that they were a bunch of horrible, helpless, confused people totally dependent upon the mercy of God to save them. This truth is a gift that only God can give.
9. How is telling us the truth a gift? A gift is when you are given something freely, right? We don't earn gifts. They are just given. Do we deserve to be saved from our rebellion? Would you rescue someone who was doing all these horrible, destructive things to THEMSELVES? The Lord Jesus Christ came to this earth and rescued us from our sin and darkness - not because of anything we did to deserve it. We have nothing but a black heart. Remember we are the "Jack in the box." (hold up the Jack in the box) If allowed to follow our hearts, we would do horrible things just like these people did. You may think they are crazy, but I assure you, if God had not taught us some things, giving us His word, (hold up the Bible) and sending us a preacher to tell us what the things in this book mean, and if we had been left to figure things out on our own, you and I would be right there with that crazy group of people, sacrificing our children to a tree stump in our back yard.

10. But wait! There is good news! God DID give us His word. God DID send us a preacher, just like He did to these people, and you know what that preacher told them? He told them that this book says: God made a promise and God made this promise before we were ever born and starting worshiping that stump. God struck a deal. God the Father entered into a covenant with God the Son. (covenant means promise) He didn't make this deal with us. Why? Because all we can do is worship a stump. No, God made this deal with His Son Jesus Christ because He cannot fail or mess it up like we do. What was that promise God made? What was the deal God made with His Son? It was that God's chosen people were going to be saved from their blind rebellion. We are going to stop worshiping that stump and our Lord is going to teach US who God REALLY is. God sent His son, Jesus Christ here to this earth, in the form of a man, just like you and me, and He said to our Lord Jesus Christ, "You go and save every single one I gave you. Go rescue them from their rebellion and black heartedness. Because I delight in having mercy." Did Christ do that? Did He keep His promise with God the Father? He did! He came to this earth and He showed us we had a horrible black heart and He showed us our helpless, horrible condition, and then we cried, "Lord Save us!" Christ answered, "I already did. It is finished. You are mine and I redeemed you out of your black hearted rebellion and I will be your King, and you will with happy hearts serve me all the rest of your days."
11. When that happens, who do we give the credit to? Us? Did we do anything to save ourselves? No! All we can do is spew out sin and drown in it. No, GOD did it! God gives us a new heart to praise Him with - not our old heart that is evil and full of nothing but rebellion. This new heart loves Him and causes us to want to serve Him because we love Him. Our black heart does not rule us anymore. Our love for Christ does. Our black heart does not blind us anymore. Christ our Lord has given us sight. Our black heart does not cause us to freely rebel anymore. The love of God constrains us. (Hold up the jack-in-the-box, put the clown back in the box and shut the lid).

Book of 2 Kings

Lesson Overview:

Today we looked at an overview of the Book of 2 Kings. Two points were made about the over all theme of this book. The first theme demonstrated was the nature of our rebellion and sin. A "Jack-in-the-box" toy was used in the demonstration in which the Jack represented the heart of man and even if you put the heart in a box and hold it down as soon as it has one side or constraint is removed it jumps out and does that it really desires the most. Just because it is in the box does not change it's nature. This is the way of our hearts and this is exactly what happened to the people in 2 Kings. The Lord left them to their vain imaginations and they did what they thought was right in their own eyes and did horrible things. But the other theme in this book is God's goodness and mercy and forgiveness. He did not leave the people in their horrible darkness. He sent his prophets, men of God to teach them the truth and when they saw God's goodness as a backdrop to their own wicked hearts the Lord showed them how he can have mercy on them in spite of their wickedness. He told them what the Bible teaches: God made a promise and God made this promise before we were ever born and starting worshipping that stump. God struck a deal. God the Father entered into a covenant with God the Son. (covenant means promise) He didn't make this deal with us. Why? Because all we can do is worship a stump. No, God made this deal with His Son Jesus Christ because He cannot fail or mess it up like we do. What was that promise God made? What was the deal God made with His Son? It was that God's chosen people were going to be saved from their blind rebellion. We are going to stop worshiping that stump and our Lord is going to teach US who God REALLY is. God sent His son, Jesus Christ here to this earth, in the form of a man, just like you and me, and He said to our Lord Jesus Christ, "You go and save every single one I gave you. It is finished. You are mine and I redeemed you out of your black hearted rebellion and I will be your King, and you will with happy hearts serve me all the rest of your days."

Title: 2 KINGS
 “Where is the God of Elijah?”

Text: 2 Kings 17:9-19

Subject: The History of Israel and the Purpose of God

Date: Tuesday Evening— 2003

Tape # X-58a

Readings: Rex Bartley and Bobbie Estes

Introduction:

2 Kings picks up the history of Israel’s divided kingdom right where 1 Kings ended. It is a sad, sad history of man’s rebellion, sin and idolatry.

ISRAEL

After Solomon’s death, after the kingdom of Israel was divided, the northern kingdom of Israel was ruled for 250 years by nineteen different men. All of them were wicked, idolatrous, self-serving men.

God sent prophet after prophet to them, calling them to repentance.

- Elijah
- Elisha
- Amos
- Hosea
- Jonah

But Israel and her kings followed Baal and the gods of human invention. Walking after the lusts of their own hearts, they walked in obstinate defiance of God’s right to be God, plunging themselves into deeper and deeper moral and spiritual degradation. At last, God gave them up!

JUDAH

Things were only slightly better in Judah. The southern kingdom of Judah survived for 140 years longer than Israel. She had twenty different kings, all from the family of David. Most of their kings were also wicked men. Few walked in the way of David. They wore his name, but knew nothing of his character or his God.

After a long history hearing and despising the Word of God Israel was taken captive by the Assyrians (ch. 17). 136 years later, Judah, following the same path of rebellion, idolatry and sin, was taken away in captivity to Babylon. Let's read the reason for their woe together and be warned (17:9-19).

(2 Kings 17:9-17) "And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against the LORD their God, and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city. {10} And they set them up images and groves in every high hill, and under every green tree: {11} And there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom the LORD carried away before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger: {12} For they served idols, whereof the LORD had said unto them, Ye shall not do this thing. {13} Yet the LORD testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets. {14} Notwithstanding they would not hear, but hardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in the LORD their God. {15} And they rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them, that they should not do like them. {16} And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal. {17} And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger."

Proposition: It is man's disobedience to the revelation of God (the willful, deliberate disobedience of a heart of enmity against God) that brings upon men and women the everlasting wrath and judgment of God (Pro. 1:23-33; 29:1).

(Proverbs 1:23-33) "Turn you at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you. {24} Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded; {25} But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof: {26} I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh; {27} When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you. {28} Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me: {29} For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the LORD: {30} They would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof. {31} Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices. {32} For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them. {33} But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil."

(Proverbs 29:1) "He, that being often reprov'd hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy."

GOD'S PURPOSE OF GRACE

Though the Lord God utterly destroyed the northern kingdom and swore that he would destroy Judah as well, he preserved a remnant, even in judgment, through whom Christ would come through the seed of David. He had sworn back in Genesis 49 that he would not destroy Judah until Christ had come. So God refused to cast them off altogether until after the resurrection of Christ. Then, in 70 AD, he destroyed the physical seed of Abraham and turn his hand of mercy to the gathering of his elect scattered throughout the world (Rom. 11).

(Romans 11:1-5) "I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. {2} God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying, {3} Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life. {4} But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal. {5} Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace."

(Romans 11:26) "And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:"

(Romans 11:29) "For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance."

(Romans 11:33-36) "O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! {34} For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor? {35} Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again? {36} For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen."

THE PROPHETS

Yet, rather than focusing our attention on the wickedness of Israel's kings, throughout these twenty-five chapters, the Holy Spirit tells a story of grace and mercy. It is a story that revolves around the lives and ministries of faithful prophets.

In addition to Elijah, Elisha, Amos, Hosea, and Jonah, the history of Israel and Judah described in 2 Kings, takes in the ministries Obadiah, Joel, Isaiah, Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and Daniel.

It is true, there were in Judah a few good kings, a few who enacted laws for the glory of God and the good of his people, a few kings who tore down the groves, the high places, the altars, and the images of Baal.

HEZEKIAH

There were a few, like Hezekiah, who did "that which was right in the sight of the Lord." We do not have to guess what is meant by those words.

(2 Kings 18:4-7) "He removed the high places, and brake the images, and cut down the groves, and brake in pieces the brazen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it: and he called it Nehushtan. {5} He trusted in the LORD God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him. {6} For he clave to the LORD, and departed not from following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses. {7} And the LORD was with him; and he prospered whithersoever he went forth: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not."

JOSIAH

Many today make much ado about Egypt's boy king, Tut. But Egypt's king Tut was only a boy pagan, who followed the wickedness of his fathers. Judah had a boy king, by the name of Josiah, who stood head and shoulders above his fathers.

(2 Kings 23:25) "And like unto him was there no king before him, that turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him."

- Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign.
- When he was eighteen years old, he began to restore the house of God.
- Hilkiah the priest found the Book of God in the ruins of the temple. He gave it to Shaphan the scribe. Shaphan read to Book to the king. And young King Josiah went to work for the glory of God and the good of his people.—Destroyed Idols!—Executed False Prophets!—Purged the Land of Homosexuals!—Put Away the Wizards and Witches!—And Kept the Passover!

Still, the story of God's mercy and grace, the story of God's blessings upon his people always revolves around his prophets, those men of God sent to proclaim his Word to his people.

ELIJAH

Elijah was John the Baptist of the Old Testament. As John the Baptist was the forerunner of Christ, so God's prophet's were always the forerunners of either judgment or of mercy.

But in the second chapter of 2 Kings, Elijah is distinctly set before us as picture of that blessed hope in which we live, anxiously awaiting our Lord's gracious call by which he will soon fetch us home.

(2 Kings 2:11-12) "And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.—And Elisha saw it!"

- The Believer's Death—A Translation!
- The Second Coming and Resurrection Glory!

ELISHA

Elisha had faithfully served Elijah from the time the prophet of God had cast his mantle upon him. Now, the old prophet was about to go home. So he asked his faithful servant, what he wanted. Look at it (2:9-10).

(2 Kings 2:9-10) "And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me. {10} And he said, Thou hast asked a hard thing: nevertheless, if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so."

Elisha's request for a double portion of Elijah's spirit, was not, as is commonly thought, a request that he might have twice the power and influence as a prophet that Elijah had. That would have been an absurd, selfish, ungodly request.

The law of God required that the firstborn son receive a double portion (Deut. 21:17) of his father's estate. What Elisha requested was that he might be received of God and treated by him as Elijah's firstborn son. Elijah said, "What you have asked is a hard thing. Nevertheless, if you see me in my ascension to heaven, you shall have this great boon.—"And Elisha saw it!"

That is exactly what God gives to all his people. He gives all his elect the double portion of his Firstborn Son, all the heritage of Christ (John 17:22; Isa. 40:1-2)!

- This great inheritance of grace and glory is freely bestowed upon every sinner to whom and in whom God reveals his Son in his glory.
- When a sinner receives this great boon of grace, like Elisha when he saw Elijah taken up, tears off his own clothes, takes up the mantle of Christ's righteousness, and walks with God forever in the power of his resurrection (Rom. 6).—This is exactly what we confess in believer's baptism.

WATERS HEALED

As Moses healed the bitter waters of Marah by casting in the tree that pictured the cross of Christ, Elisha healed the waters of Jericho by casting in salt (2:16-20). Before this, the land of Jericho was full of death and barren. Once the waters were healed, it was full of life and abounding with fruit.

The salt Elisha cast into the waters represented much the same thing as the tree at Marah. You will remember that God required Israel, with all their sacrifices to offer salt. His covenant was called "a covenant of salt" (Num. 18:19; 2 Chr. 13:5).

This is a picture of the gospel and its power in the lives of God's elect. It is the power of God unto salvation. Once the salt of covenant grace has been cast into our deadness and barrenness, life springs up in our very souls and the Spirit of God, by the covenant of salt makes us who were dead in trespasses and sins, (utterly useless!), fruitful unto God.

DITCHES

In chapter three the Lord performed a mighty miracle for Israel, Judah and Edom, when Moab threatened to destroy them.

(1 Kings 3:16-17) "Then came there two women, that were harlots, unto the king, and stood before him. {17} And the one woman said, O my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house."

(1 Kings 3:20) "And she arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while thine handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom."

- Ditches were cut through all the land by the Word of God.—Conviction!
- Wherever a ditch was cut, the water of life filled the ditch, without any effort, or even sound, or even feeling on the part of any man.
- The ditches were filled with water in direct connection with the morning sacrifice.—Grace and life come to sinners by the power of God, as the result of and only as the result of, Christ's sacrifice!

A POT OF OIL

In chapter four there was a poor prophet's widow, who was left in debt when her husband died. She had two sons and nothing to pay her debt. She was terrified that she and her sons might be taken into bondage by their creditor. The Lord God miraculously met her need by the power of his grace (4:1-7).

- She had a little oil in her vessel; but the only way she could get what she needed was to first have her little bit of oil completely poured out.—God only fills empty vessels!
- Once she emptied her little vessel, she never lacked again!

When we are emptied of self, God the Holy Spirit fills us. He brings to our souls all the fullness of Christ (by whom all our debt has been paid (A Conscience free of Guilt!), and all our needs supplied!

NEW BIRTH

Throughout the Scriptures, the new birth is portrayed as a resurrection from the dead (John 11; Eph. 2:4-8; Rev. 20:6). Here in 2 Kings 4, we have delightful picture of it in the resurrection of the Shunammite's son.

- This poor woman ran to the man of God with her dead son (v. 22).—Run to Christ for mercy for your sons and daughters.
- Elijah sent his servant running to meet her (v. 26).
- Elisha took the dead boy away to his own private room and performed his mighty miracle (vv. 32-37).—He prayed for the child (Christ's Intercession)—He stretched himself upon the child (mouth to mouth, eye to eye, hand to hand) and gave his life (as it were) to the child!

DEATH IN THE POT

At Gilgal (4:38-41), when men gathered herbs from the cursed earth, never suspecting that there might be danger in eating them

(“For they knew them not.”), they made a huge pot of pottage for the prophets. But there was death in the pot. Elisha cast meal into the pot, (Christ the Bread of Life), and there was no longer any harm or death in the pot.

In the last verse of chapter four (42-44), Elisha multiplied the loaves for the feeding of a multitude. They ate all they wanted, and plenty was left over.—God’s free grace in Christ is boundless, ever multiplied, fully satisfying, and there is an infinite abundance of it for sinners.

NAAMAN

The story of Naaman’s healing is tremendous and instructive (chp. 5).

- A Mighty Man of Wealth and Influence
- A Captain Among Israel’s Enemies
- A Leper
- A Man to Whom God sent a Little Girl who Believed God, who gave him a Word of Hope.
- A Man Whose Path God Crossed—“I thought!”
- A man Healed By Grace!

AXE HEAD

In chapter six the lost axe head that was made to swim, is a picture of our constant need of grace being supplied to us by the power and goodness of God.

- Men were working with a borrowed tool.—So are we.
- They lost the axe head.
- Elisha made it swim and returned it to them.—“Take not thy Holy Spirit from me.—Restore unto e the joy of thy salvation.—Quicken me.”

CHARIOTS OF FIRE

(6: 16-17)—The calm assurance of God’s presence.

FOUR LEPERS

Chapter 7—Came in Desperation, with no rights and little hope.
Found Bread and Life in Syria

THE HEART

- Jehu to Jehonadab (10:15-16)—“Is thine heart right?”—“Dost thou believe on the Son of God?”
- “Took him up into his chariot!”
- “Come with me and see my zeal for the LORD.”

As Gehazi, Elisha’s servant was commanded of the king to “Tell all the great things that Elisha hath done,” so I am commanded of God to constantly tell you all the great things Christ has done. Now, I ask, “Is your hear right with God? Do you trust our Savior? Give him your hand. Ride with him in his chariot of grace, and you will forever see the wondrous things he has accomplished by his zeal.
